PALIN'S CUNNING PLAN TO STORM THE

ARAH Palin has cooked up a secret strategy to win the White House in 2016 - and her future son-in-law is the key!

Medal He's Honor winner Sgt. Dakota Meyer, who recently announced his engagement to Sarah's daughter Bristol, 24.

With a real war hero in the family, Sarah, 51, hopes voters will forget her clan's bad behavior, sources said.

"Since the moment Dakota appeared on her TV show, she'd been trying to figure out how to best use him to her advantage," said a Palin insider. "So, she started pushing Bristol and Dakota together!" Dakota, 26, met Bristol - a single mom to son Tripp. 4 - in January in Las Vegas. The couple met again in February at a Conservative Political Action Conference.

Their engagement was announced just weeks later.

"Sarah was so eager to have Dakota marry her daughter that she even bought a huge diamond engagement ring for them," added the insider.

But a quickie marriage isn't the only thing on Sarah's mind,

When Barack visited Japan last spring, candid photos showed the President canoodling with his appointment to the prestigious position of

The controversy mounted when a top member of the Japanese government noted Michelle's absence and blamed it on a marital rift!

Revealed an insider: "Michelle also ripped Caroline for not publicly defending her over the remarks made by the Japanese official. Michelle told her, "You hung me out to dry!"

THE WRATH OF Michelle was just the start of Caroline's woes, following news that she was the subject of recent death threats.

The U.S. Embassy in Tokyo reportedly received the chilling messages last month.

KILLER combo of booze and prescription pills has landed Liza Minnelli back in rehab. The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned.

The 69-year-old performer "spiraled out of control" after a painful new back injury, and sought help, a close source told The ENQUIRER.

"Liza was self-medicating. This time it was so bad that she had to enter a different facility, not where she regularly goes, to maintain her sobrietv." said the source.

Her longtime rep, Scott Gorenstein, announced March 18 that the "Cabaret" star was in treatment for substance abuse at an unnamed facility in Malibu, Calif.

While he claimed there was no drama behind Liza's admission, another insider blamed the Oscar winner's "alarming" appearance at a recent Hollywood event.

Named the "guest of honor" at the Los Angeles Italia Film Festival, Liza was working the event's red carpet on Feb. 20. and "appeared off," the insider told The ENQUIRER.

"She coherently answered some questions that night, but there were other moments when she seemed whacked out and had to be held up by her handlers."

Liza underwent back surgery last September, and at the event, she admitted that she'd reiniured it.

> "I was picking up my dogs, and they jumped," she said.

"And I got twisted and fell. I thought, 'It's nothing.' But it wasn't nothing. After an X-ray, seems I busted it and have to have it fused."

As The ENQUIRER

Liza's also coping with the deaths of two close pals: stage star Elaine Stritch, top, and comedian Joan Rivers and knee replacements.

The daughter of tragic star Judy Garland broke her wrist in three places while rehearsing in 2013, and also cancelled a string of summer concerts.

Added the source: "It's been a tough year for Liza. Besides her physical ailments, she lost two of her closest friends comedian Joan Rivers and Broadway star Elaine Stritch. Those deaths simply shattered her."

Heartbreak Hotel!

The plumped-up Grammy winner's hubby, serial cheater Brandon Blackstock, cozied up to a dark-haired beauty during a boozy night of club hopping, sources told The National ENQUIRER.

Brandon, 38, flirted up a storm at Nashville nightspots Karma Lounge and the Wildhorse Saloon, and pals fear he and Kelly, 32, could be headed for a $30 million divorce!

"Brandon was with four women and one guy. The girls were dancer types wearing very revealing dresses and lots of makeup," said our Music City spv.

One of the ladies definitely caught Brandon's fancy, the source said.

rubbing up against each other and enjoying the music," dished our spy, who chatted with a member of Brandon's crew, a longtime pal named Randall, at both clubs.

Kelly was a belly-baring babe a decade ago but has seen her weight balloon since giving birth

When I asked what he meant, he said, 'Well, you know about her weight," the source said.

"Miss Independent" firecracker Kelly, who's 5-foot-4, now tops 200 pounds after giving birth to the couple's daughter, River Rose, last June.

Her blimpy bod is a far cry from the sexy 127-pound figure she used to hook Brandon, her talent manager, in 2011 after hiring a personal trainer to help her slim down.

Brandon's latest betrayal could amount to the final straw for Texasborn Kelly, who has sold more than 20 million albums since winning the first "American Idol" title in 2002.

As The ENQUIRER has reported, Brandon - who also has two kids by an ex-wife - was linked in late 2013 to a woman he met at a Tennessee golf club, and another lady who claimed he impregnated her during a Los Angeles tryst.

"I asked one of the girls in the club's women's room about Brandon's flirting, since he's married, and she just rolled her eyes," our source said. "It's sad since Kelly has an infant at home."

ILL Wilkinson was once the most hated man in America - a domestic terrorist who advocated racial violence as Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan. The National ENQUIRER exposed his evil agenda, forcing the coward to flee the country 30 years ago.

You can run and hide - but The ENQUIRER will find you!

The 72-year-old fiery racist, who still boasts of his controversial past, is hiding in plain sight on a Caribbean island resort - where he's one of the few white folks!

The ENQUIRER exposed Wilkinson in 1979 when he announced he was "going international" with a Klan Youth Corp trained "to do maximum damage!"

He claimed his Louisiana chapter of the KKK shot up a black activist's car in 1978, "and we're not ashamed of it." A year later, Wilkinson and his followers were held partially responsible for opening fire on black marchers in Decatur, Ala.

The Southern Poverty Law Center filed multiple lawsuits against the Klansmen, but Wilkinson refused to name participating members.

The SPLC went after Wilkinson again in 1984, blocking him from forming another violent paramilitary unit called the Klan Guard. That's when the former Wizard finally fled - to the tropical paradise of Belize.

And now he's proclaiming that "life is real good!" - from the $3 million resort he owns in San Pedro on the gorgeous island of Ambergris Caye!

"San Pedro is full of friendly people - blacks, Rastafarians, Hispanics," he said. "I have a good relationship with them!"

Despite his friendly and racially diverse neighbors, Wilkinson remains a proud segregationist - and still opposes intermarriage!

A local merchant said: "Let me tell you something about this guy. He is a happy man. I know about his past, but I tend not to talk about it.

"He's king of the rednecks!" There were rumors Wilkinson was an FBI informant - a power-mad Louisiana leader out to shut down rival Klan factions.

While the FBI won't comment on Wilkinson as an informant, a federal agent told The ENQUIRER: "We're just happy that he's out of the country!"

COPS UNCOVER SENSATIONAL NEW FOREN

HIS is the moment one of the last men to see Natalie Wood explained to cops in chilling detail how he believes Robert Wagner WAS responsible for his wife's death.

In a startling and dramatic new development, forensic detectives probing the mysterious drowning secretly flew "Splendour" boat captain Dennis Davern to Hawaii so he could walk them through - STEP-BY-STEP - Natalie's terrifying final moments before she plunged to a watery demise.

These world exclusive photos show a real-life "CSI" moment as three investigators from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Homicide Bureau conducted a series of top-secret tests that will be critical to determining if "Hart to Hart" star Wagner will now sensationally face murder charges!

THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER

has learned cops conducted a series of "noise tests" over four days in a bid to substantiate Dennis' explosive eyewitness account of what he said REALLY took place on the mysterious night of Nov. 28, 1981, while boating off the Southern California

Dennis - who passed a polygraph test administered to him by police - specifically has implicated Wagner in Natalie's cold case death, and his information helped authorities reopen their files in 2011.

While Wagner has strongly denied fighting with his wife, Dennis has provided explosive testimony that the troubled couple had a vicious argument that he heard and partially saw before Natalie, 43, disappeared off the boat.

When guizzed for comment by The ENQUIRER, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Homicide Lt. John Corina confirmed that police did recreate Dennis' 60-foot "Splendour," and the he was indeed in a position to Natale Wood: version of events aboard the "noise tests" indicated that clearly hear the argument!

What's more, the police official said a fourth person on the ill-fated boating trip - Natalie's "Brainstorm" co-star, actor Christopher Walken - also could have heard the fight.

"Davern's recollection of that night was pretty clear," Lt. Corina confirmed. "We determined that the loud clamoring could be heard in the other rooms below deck."

WHILE WAGNER, 85, has not been named "a suspect" in Natalie's death, the top cop told The ENQUIRER that he - along with Dennis and Walken - is now classified as "a person of interest" in the investigation. He said that determination was made after the L.A. Coroner's Office changed the cause of Natalie's death from "accidental drowning" to "drowning and other undermined factors."

Said Lt. Corina: "(Of the three), Wagner is the only person who is not cooperating and talking to us. I think it speaks volumes that he won't speak about his wife's death ... As far as we know, he was the last person to be seen or heard talking to Natalie before she went missing!"

On the night she died, Dennis has told authorities that Wagner got into a heated argument with Walken.

SARAH'S FEARSFOR BUFFY CO-STAR

Nicholas is 'destroying himself,' says a friend

ORMER "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" actor Nicholas Brendon won't stop getting drunk and disorderly - and former co-star Sarah Michelle Gellar is leaping in to try to save her old friend!

That's because the actress is terrified of Nicholas coming to the same tragic end as her former "Crazy Ones" co-star, Robin Williams, insiders have revealed to The National ENQUIRER.

"Sarah loves Nick, and she's still haunted by Robin's death," said a friend. "She said that she just can't stand idly by and watch Nick destroy himself!"

Nicholas, 43, starred as Sarah's sidekick, Xander Harris, on the hit "Buffy" series for seven seasons.

He was arrested on March 13 in Tallahassee, Fla., and charged with causing $1,000 worth of damage to his hotel room - marking his third arrest in just five months, all for trashing hotel property during comic book and sci-fi conventions.

Now Sarah "wants to do everything she can to help him," a friend added.

Bobbi Kristina's PO$H engagement ring goes missing!

HE sad saga of Bobbi Kristina Brown continues - as her late mother's diamond ring has disappeared.

It's the same ring Bobbi Kristina – who has remained in a coma since Jan. 31 – shared on Instagram as her "engagement ring" in 2012, when she announced plans to marry Nick Gordon.

A Houston family member is now trying to locate the $250,000 sparkler, The National ENQUIRER has learned.

Questions about the ring's whereabouts were raised when Nick asked his mom if she had "the ring" during their interview with TV shrink Dr.

Phil McGraw.

Michelle Gordon told her son she was keeping it in a safe place. But Nick said that ring was different from the one he bought for Bobbi Kristina.

The Houston family rep called Dr. Phil later to ask for help in locating the ring.

TWO STARS HOPING TO BE A MOM AGAIN - AT 49 & 50!

Cindy has major cravings ... while Wynonna wants a littl ginger Judd

Rande and Cindy, parents to Kaia and Presley, "couldn't be more excited" and are open to a boy or a girl, a source said

ATURE moms Cindv Crawford and Wynonna Judd have babies on the brain and sources said their husbands are all for adding to their broods!

Still-stunning supermodel Cindy, 49, and Rande Gerber, 52, are already looking for a surrogate mother to carry their third child, insiders told The National ENQUIRER.

the Nashville hitmaker, 50, has considered both surrogacy and adoption while planning a family with 57-year-old Michael Scott "Cactus" Moser. according to friends.

"Wy and Cactus have talked long and often about a child," a source said. "They think it would be great to raise one in a loving and caring home."

Wynonna has two kids - Elijah, 20, and Grace, 18 - from her first marriage.

She wed Cactus, the drummer for country act Highway As for redheaded Wynonna, 101, in June 2012. Just eight friends are having kids," and weeks after their wedding, his left leg was amputated above the knee after a motorcycle accident.

"When Wynonna brought up the idea of having a child, Cactus had some reservations, especially given his physical condition," said the source. "But he knows it's something Wy wants, so he's on board!"

Cindy and model-turnedbusinessman Rande are parents of son Presley, 15, and daughter Kaia, 13.

But a pal said: "A lot of their

Cactus and Wynonna - mom to Elijah and Grace from a previous marriage – tied the knot almost three years ago

it's made Cindy have major cravings for "just one more."

"They have been talking to friends who have been through the [surrogacy] process, and have a couple of suitable women in mind," the source explained.

"Cindy has already been planning the nursery and checking out baby clothes. She can't believe she's going to be a new mom again after all these years!"

AISLE WED WHEN I'M READY!

Hayden holds off on marriage to sporty Wlad

■ HE wedding's off for "Nashville" cutie Hayden Panettiere and fiancé Wladimir Klitschko - at least for now!

The petite actress, 25, has put off tying the knot with the Ukrainian boxer, 39, to concentrate on their daughter, Kaya, born Dec. 9, sources said.

"Last year, Hayden decided she didn't want to walk down the aisle with a baby bump," said a pal. "So she and Wladimir agreed to wait until the baby was born before making wedding plans.

"But now that Kaya is here, the two seemed to have changed their minds. There's all the time in the world to get married.

"For now it's all about the baby."

Hayden, who's 5-foot-2, and 6-foot-6 Wladimir split in 2011 after a two-year romance. They reunited in 2013, and he proposed with a $500,000 six-carat diamond sparkler.

"I have no doubt they love each other," explained the source. "But growing up in war-torn Ukraine is a lot different than growing up in New York City, and a 14-year age difference is nothing to sneeze at."

As for marriage, "Wladimir and Hayden already feel bonded by the baby," added the source. "And her dad hasn't shown up with a shotgun, so there's no need to rush into anything."

I KNOW WHO KILLED MY SISTER NATALIE...

HE wounds left by the loss of Natalie Wood still bleed for her long-suffering sister.

But with the official investigation into her mysterious drowning nearing a spectacular climax, Lana Wood is now begging Los Angeles District Attorney Jackie Lacey to arrest Robert Wagner in the death of his late wife!

In a bombshell open letter to Lacey, obtained exclusively by The National ENQUIRER, Lana penned: "I am writing to plead with you to consider pressing charges against Robert Wagner.

"It has recently come to my attention that (detectives) feel very strongly they have sufficient evidence implicating Wagner in her death, but, that your office feels it is only circumstantial and therefore will not move forward."

Lana continued: "Is there something I do not understand? Why, year after year is this man ... continually allowed to refuse to meet and speak with the detectives?"

In November 2011, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department announced it was reopening the investigation into Natalie's 1981 drowning.

At the time, police said Wagner was not a suspect, and Lana told then-CNN host Piers Morgan: "I can't imagine that he (Wagner) purposely would have done anything to hurt Natalie. However, I know things happen when there is too much drinking and fighting."

> Since then, Lana - who played Plenty O'Toole in the 1971 James Bond film "Diamonds Are Forever" - has told The ENQUIRER she firmly believes Wagner is involved in Natalie's death!

She cited new information gathered detectives, and the fact that the Coroner's Office officially changed the cause of Natalie's death from "accidental drowning" to "drowning and other undetermined factors."

Lana told The ENQUIR-ER: "I know who killed my sister," adding that she believes former "Hart to Hart" star Wagner thinks he's "untouchable."

She revealed that police recently flew to Colorado to interview her former brother-in-law at his home there, but Wagner again refused to cooperate.

At the end of her letter, Lana pled: "I am

According to Dennis, a furious Wagner shouted: "Do you want to f my wife?"

Wagner then smashed a bottle of wine, and Natalie fled the main cabin.

While Wagner has admitted arguing with Walken, he said he later looked in on his wife in their sleeping quarters but never saw her again until her body was later recovered in the water.

Dennis has challenged that position: According to his recollections, the couple had a brutal fight during which he heard "things (objects, possibly people) hitting the walls."

AT ONE POINT, Dennis claimed he glanced out of his "pilot house" window and saw the couple on the yacht's aft deck.

He alleged: "They moved their fight outside ... You could tell from their animated gestures they were still arguing."

Fifteen minutes later, Dennis said Wagner informed him that Natalie may have returned to shore aboard the yacht's small "dinghy," noting that Wagner appeared "nervous and disheveled."

Dennis said Wagner delayed the search for his wife before the dinghy was found a mile from the yacht - and a mile from where Natalie's body was eventually found.

The cops' new forensic development is considered a significant step in potentially solving the 33-year Hollywood whodunit, according to top Los Angeles private investigator Dan Hanks.

"The police have taken the extraordinary step of recreating what Dennis told them - the 'CSI' evidence is now absolutely critical in determining Wagner's guilt. If I was him, I'd be very concerned - it looks like Wagner's time is running out!"

Overworked assistant & nanny detail DEMON DIVA'S DEMANDS

BOOZED-UP Mariah Carey turned her posh penthouse into a "house of horrors" for her hired help - and they're firing back in bombshell lawsuits uncovered by The National ENQUIRER.

The pop diva's former assistant and nanny each claim the "Vision of Love" singer stiffed them out of a small fortune in wages after they slavishly met her everv whim during 120-hour-plus work weeks.

What's more, 46-year-old Mariah rarely slept and threw tantrums if her wacky demands weren't met. sources said.

She also ordered staff members to wear only black "so she stands out as the star." a source said.

"And when she had people over, she'd have staff follow her with a portable speaker, playing music - so she could make an entrance with a theme sona!"

The source dished that Mari-

'Ms. Carey would not tolerate any delay when she called and Plaintiff had to attend to her every demand, spontaneous or otherwise, whether called upon during the day or in the middle of the night.'

ah constantly sips white wine from ginger ale cans, while other insiders claimed the Grammy winner is also fond of prescription codeine cough syrup.

Shockingly,

Mariah's boozing and insomnia often sent her into trance-like states, forcing a staffer to follow her around to catch her if she fell, said the source.

In other quirks, "she makes her assistant sing her lullabies, and she's said to have had her staff fill a bathtub with chocolate truffle gelato. She wanted to bathe in it!"

Her former nanny, Simonette DaCosta, claimed in her lawsuit that she cared for Mariah's boy-girl twins - Moroccan and Monroe, who turn 4 on April 30 - "during all hours of each twenty-four hour day with no entitlement for breaks, for meals, and even for sleep."

Former assistant Ylser Oliver has also slapped the pop star with a scathing lawsuit, claiming she worked six to seven days a week. 10 to 16 hours a day. without meal breaks, and wasn't compensated.

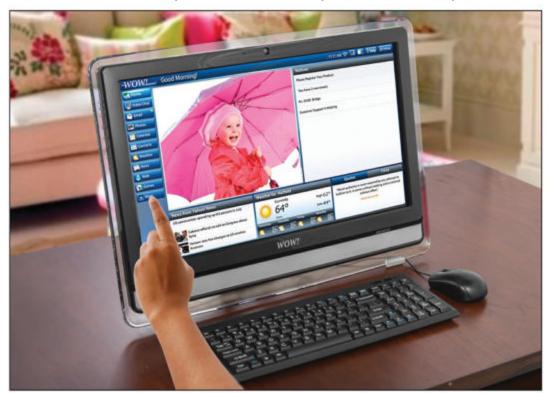

Meanwhile, insiders said Mariah ordered one other item to always be on hand.

"Her Jack Russell terrier wasn't very well-trained, so he often bit Mariah," the insider dished. "But she'd accept only a Hello Kitty Band-Aid."

SPECIAL THE SCARY SPECTER THAT IS E

HE bloodthirsty terrorists of the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria [ISIS] are waging violent jihad across the Middle East - and tricking American youth into joining their warped cause!

"The recruitment of our young people is a growing threat," said forensic psychiatrist Michael Welner in an exclusive interview with The National ENQUIRER.

"Radical Muslims have become adept at reaching our young people in the most modern methods possible, and through the most trendy social media - in English, and with the music and language of their generation."

Dr. Welner has exposed how gullible would-be "revolutionaries" are being lured in from the United States with slick videos peddled through social media.

"They pull in idealistic Americans who are at the point in their lives where they are open to adventure, and want a sense of belonging to something greater than themselves," he added.

A recent report by the Office of National Intelligence estimated that 180 Americans - in their teens or early 20s - have traveled or tried to travel to radical outposts in the Middle East. These people end up in anti-American terror camps, with their passports and communication devices taken away as they learn they'll be trained to fight for radical Muslim beliefs – including plotting the destruction of the USA and Israel.

Dr. Welner explained that the process doesn't happen overnight: "There's a period of grooming where the recruiter befriends the target, and over weeks or months the messages sent back and forth create an attachment to a stranger and a cause."

Dr. Welner warned that there's no special honor to being selected, though. "The recruits are viewed as expendable cannon fodder – and, because they're American, as props for further recruitment," he told The ENQUIRER.

"These kids are taught that death is a prelude to the pleasures of Paradise - which, for males, includes a reward of female virgins. Male suicide bombers have been known to not put the explosives near their genital area, thinking they'll still have their equipment in the afterlife."

TWO TEENS SEDUCED BY A TWISTED CAUSE

HANNON Conley, 19, is serving a fouryear prison term after being convicted of conspiracy to support ISIS. The nurse's aide revealed her twisted beliefs in 2013, after signing up for classes at the Faith Bible Chapel in Arvada, Colo.

The FBI was alerted, and Conley told them she "hated" the church members, and her future plans were "probably illegal." She was finally arrested last April at an airport - with plans to marry a Tunisian ISIS fighter.

Mohammed Hamzah Khan. 19, is awaiting trial for attempting to provide material support to a terrorist organization. He was arrested last October when FBI agents stopped him from boarding a plane to Turkey.

Khan had met an ISIS recruiter via Twitter, and was convinced to bring himself, his younger brother and sister to Syria. Authorities found that his sister had tweeted her admiration for a video of an ISIS beheading she saw online - but so far the younger siblings haven't been charged with a crime.

RESH from the scandals of her controversial exit from television's "The View" and the sudden demise of her second same-sex marriage. Rosie O'Donnell has been plunged into an illegal adoption scandal, The National ENQUIRER can reveal.

The biological mother of Rosie's 17-yearold adopted daughter, Chelsea, has unmasked herself to the world to sensationally claim she was drugged up by her then-husband on heroin and forced to give up their child!

"I believe Rosie O'Donnell knew that I was in no condition to sign away my parental rights to my daughter!" Deanna Micoley, 37, told The ENQUIRER in a blockbuster exclusive interview.

"She did the worst thing one woman can do to another woman - take her child!"

DEANNA WAS UNHAPPILY married and just 20 years old when, in Aug. 1997, she gave birth to a baby girl who she named Kayla. Two months later, her now ex-husband - whose name is being withheld by The ENQUIRER - forced her to give up their child to an adoption agency, it's alleaed.

"I may not have been the best mother back then. I did drugs and I have a criminal record because of it." Deanna admitted.

"But I surely didn't deserve to have my baby stolen from me!"

Deanna said she never knew 53-year-old Rosie had adopted her daughter until last November when Kayla - now known as Chelsea - contacted her father.

The married stay-at-home mom of four, who lives in Wisconsin, told The ENQUIR-ER: "Rosie O'Donnell stole my baby, but I don't want her money. I just want my daughter back!

"Chelsea told him that she was his granddaughter. He called me and broke the news. It was the moment I'd been waiting and praying for the last 17 years I'd found my precious daughter!"

> SINCE THEN, Deanna and Chelsea have communicated through Facebook and text messages, during which her daughter revealed to her birth mom that she despises bombastic Rosie!

"Chelsea has told me that she had issues with Rosie," Deanna said.

"I believe Rosie has abandoned her. Since about the age of 12, Rosie's basically shipped Chelsea off to different boarding schools."

When Chelsea guizzed Deanna as to why she'd been placed for adoption, Deanna said: "I told her the truth - that Carpenter, adopted son Blake in Dec. 1999. Kelli gave birth to their daughter, Vivienne, through artificial insemination in Nov. 2002. The couple wed in California in 2004, and split in 2007.

Rosie adopted her fifth child, 2-year-old daughter Dakota, in 2013 with her second wife. Michelle Rounds.

But the pair split after little more than two years of marriage, with the end coinciding with the opinionated star's decision to quit "The View" - just four months after rejoining the cast.

- ALAN BUTTERFIELD

ROSIE'S RESPONSE

OSIE O'Donnell's camp attacked Deanna Micoley for speaking out publicly about her biological daughter.

Speaking exclusively to The National ENQUIRER, publicist Cindi Berger said Rosie "legally adopted" Chelsea from the non-profit Children of the World in New Jersey.

"The agency never would have accepted the baby if the birth mother was under the influence," Berger said.

"There are notarized adoption papers signed by the birth mother and father that were accepted by both the adoption agency and the Court."

Rosie is "unbearably proud" of Chelsea, Berger added, and "has encouraged and supported Chelsea's desire to communicate with her birth mother. How disappointing that Chelsea's birth mother would go public with this personal story without ever having met Rosie."

Twisted killer Durst linked to 6 OTHER MURDERS

HE CROSS-dressing millionaire charged with an execution-style shooting is a suspect in at least six other murders!

Real estate heir Robert Durst, 71, whose cold-blooded crime spree was exposed by the HBO docuseries "The Jinx," is being investigated in unsolved killings in six cities. The National ENQUIRER can now reveal.

Durst allegedly shot close friend Susan Berman in the head in Los Angeles in 2000, and is suspected of doing away with his first wife, Kathie, who vanished in 1982.

He's also admitted to killing a Texas neighbor, Morris Black, but claimed it was self-defense and got off. When Durst shot Morris, he was dressed as a woman and wearing a blonde wig.

"When promos for 'The Jinx' started airing, we started getting calls from different police departments," a law enforcement source close to the Berman case told The ENQUIRER.

"Durst's name has surfaced in at least of a line while prisoners were waiting for their medication, said our inside source.

That infuriated fellow inmate and Aryan Nation member, sexual offender Travis "Blu" Waugh, the source revealed.

Said the rat: "O.J. still thinks of himself as a celebrity who doesn't have to follow any rules. That pissed off this bad dude, who told O.J. to 'wait like everybody else.'

"O.J. challenged the skinhead and spit in his direction."

WITH TEMPERS ON both sides flaring, O.J. reportedly said: "I'm gonna stay right here and your ass ain't gonna do nothing about it."

That's when Blu slammed O.J. against a wall and threatened to kill him, snarling, "O.J., you're a dead man!"

Prison guards quickly stepped in to break up the scuffle, said our snitch. They cuffed Blu and ordered O.J. back to his cell.

The 51-year-old Blu was convicted in 2005 of "attempted sexual assault on a mentally challenged minor," The ENQUIRER has learned.

O.J. WAS FOUND not guilty after being charged with the 1994 murders of his ex-wife, Nicole Brown, and her friend, Ron Goldman. He's been serving time at Lovelock since his 2008 conviction that included armed robbery.

For now, O.J. remains fearful Blu will try to attack him again. added our source.

"O.J. is so afraid that he's no longer eating his meals in the prison cafeteria," said the "He's source. eating in his cell instead. When he does leave his cell, his cell mate, who is nicknamed 'Smoke,' usually escorts him."

The only saving grace for O.J. is that Blu has a parole hearing in mid-April, said the source.

The snitch added: "I'm sure O.J. is hoping and praying that Blu is granted parole and leaves prison soon."

six investigations across the country. We believe he has killed multiple times.

"Police departments are looking into their unsolved murder and missing persons cases. They are specifically looking at all of the cities where they know he's lived."

One "cold case" murder was in West Hollywood. Others were in northern California, New York City and Vermont.

A second law enforcement insider said: "We have known his name for a long time but are going back through hundreds of unsolved case files now. We've gotten fresh calls on a few of them with Durst's name."

Jon said he has seen evidence of Kate's abusive behavior when he has visitation rights - on Tuesday nights and alternating weekends.

Kate said she uses "time-outs" when they misbehave. But on a Tuesday bath night, Jon said he noticed a "large red welt" on the rear end of Leah.

"Leah explained that it was from Mother, after Leah bit Hannah..." said the filings, which continue: "While Father would prefer that Mother not physically discipline the children, if Mother is going to do so, she should not do so to

He said Kate's regimen also jeopardizes the kids' health. If one of them doesn't eat an item in their lunchbox, "Mother packs that exact same item the next day, and the next day until they eat it. Hannah reported having moldy strawberries and Alexis said her sandwich is stale." The same leftovers were packed in Leah's box "for many weeks."

As The ENQUIRER previously reported, Kate ordered staff to cut back on the kids' rations: "Serve very, very small servings. I HATE WASTING FOOD!" she fumed.

BRANDING KATE an "unfit mother," a source close to the situation said that Jon is still prepared to sue for full custody if the alleged cruelty continues.

"Kate has paddled some of the children with a wooden spoon she calls 'The she calls 'The Spanker,'" the insider revealed.

"In one incident about five years ago, Kate went to smack Mady and hit her arm with 'The Spanker' right before school. When Mady got to school, she couldn't move her arm and had to see the nurse.

"During the investigation, Mady did say her mother hit her, but the other kids were too scared to say anything. Kate never admitted anything, and she only got a slap on the wrist."

Kate was investigated twice more when "individuals" reported other incidents, according to the source.

She [Kate] is just nasty, nasty, nasty," Ashley Hartz, a social worker and former Gosselin nanny, said. "There is something seriously wrong with her."

The Youth Hormone...

Everyone's talking about it.
But can it really reduce body fat, increase lean muscle mass, boost mood, heighten sex drive, give you plenty of energy, get rid of wrinkles and tighten saggy skin?

Barbara just had another birthday.

She watches her diet, exercises when she can, and is in pretty good shape. In fact, she could be the poster child for the "Fountain of Youth" headline we see on the covers of fashion mags around the globe. What's her secret? It's not just the occasional Botox, peel or filler, or even her assortment of skin creams that could rival the anti-aging section of your local Sephora. Barbara, who was always "cutting edge," has become a believer in what is fast becoming the most popular (if not the most expensive) anti-aging treatment in the USA... Growth Hormone Therapy.

- By Tiffany Strobel*

t seems everyone is talking about human growth hormone lately. No less than the famed Dr. Oz began a recent show by asking his audience, "How many of you want to start feeling 20 years younger right now?" Allure magazine, in its "Anti-aging Special" issue, highlighted growth hormone as its year-end call-out. Shape magazine began a recent growth hormone article with the provocative lead in: "When you see a 50-year-old actress who can pass for 35, you can bet that good genes aren't the only things responsible for her youthful glow." Fox News, The Today Show, CNN, ABC, and CBS have all contributed to the current frenzy.

VANITY FAIR says: "A 20-year-old produces more than twice as much hGH as [she] will when [she's] 40... hGH, by turning back the body clock, turns back the aging process."

DR. OZ says: "I have been searching for this from the day we started the show. I've been looking for ways of increasing hGH naturally because I don't like getting the injections."

Why all the fuss?

Simple. hGH disciples... and to many like Barbara, hGH therapy is truly a religious experience... believe hGH can help reduce body fat, increase lean muscle mass, boost mood, heighten sex drive, give them plenty of energy, get rid of wrinkles and tighten saggy skin... making them look and feel decades - not years, but decades - younger. Celebrities, CEOs, Wall Street execs, models, housewives, athletes and even some high-ranking politicians all seem to be drinking from the same pitcher of Kool-Aid. There's no doubt about it; in our current fast-paced, "youth-oriented" culture, hGH therapy is hot.

The controversy

The controversy isn't over whether or not hGH plays an essential role in our health and aging (virtually everyone already agrees on that). Instead, the controversy lies in the best way to maintain our body's supply of human growth hormone. Until recently, most felt the best way was through expensive prescription injections (although costs can run as high as $1500 per month). However, some experts argue against the use of these synthetic injections, because they fear introducing synthetic hGH into the body may upset natural hGH production.

The breakthrough

Because of growth hormone's potential, researchers have spent the last thirty years searching for a reliable, clinically proven way to promote pituitary health, thereby increasing human growth hormone levels naturally. So it's no surprise that when an oral compound capable of increasing mean, endogenous, bioactive, serum (blood) growth hormone levels... by 682%... was presented at the prestigious Obesity Society's most recent Scientific Meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, The Academy of Women's Health's 21st Annual Congress in Washington, D.C., and then again at The 9th World Congress of Cosmetic Dermatology held in Athens, Greece, it created a serious stir.

The revolution

The formula that was the subject of these research findings is now being sold by SanMedica International™ under the trade name SeroVital.® And when Dr. Oz disclosed that "a recent study [on SeroVitalhgh] showed patients given a special blend of amino acids saw their hGH levels spike more than 6 times..." and added, "I have been searching for this from the day we started the but ten U.S. Patents to protect the SeroVital formula from imitators.[‡]

Thanks to the release of SeroVital, the hGH revolution has finally arrived. Now that there's an easy-to-swallow capsule that can raise growth hormone naturally, an awful lot of people have stopped asking if they should be increasing their hGH levels and started asking which hGH-boosting option is right for them.

Is it worth it?

To me, anything that may reduce wrinkles, tighten saggy skin, decrease body fat, increase lean muscle mass, strengthen bones, and boost mood, while giving you plenty of energy and improving sex drive, is a no-brainer. However, make no mistake about it,

SHAPE says: "When you see a 50-year-old actress who can pass for 35, you can bet that good genes aren't the only things responsible for her youthful glow."

show. I've been looking for ways of increasing hGH naturally because I don't like getting the injections," you can imagine the frenzy he created. Before long, SanMedica was having trouble keeping SeroVital in stock. It went from underground sensation to full-blown phenomenon. Even the United States Patent Office has added to the SeroVital mystique by issuing not one the "established" medical community (and of course, they know everything) would say its benefits are largely anecdotal, and based on research that's preliminary. But there's no denying that something that has a chance of making you look and feel decades, not years, but DECADES, younger, is... at the very least... irresistible. Frankly, I'm ready to try it... How about you?

So what's the catch?

Dr. Amy Heaton, PhD, Director of Scientific Affairs for SanMedica International, says: "There are three. First, as with hGH injections, SeroVital is not a 'magic bullet,' but one part of a healthy lifestyle choice including a sensible diet and exercise regimen.

"Second, for proper absorption, you have to take SeroVital-hgh on an empty stomach. That means you either have to take it first thing in the morning and then not eat anything for two hours, or take it at night, at least two hours after your last meal... before you go to bed.

"And last but not least, while SeroVital is far less expensive than prescription hGH injections, it's still not cheap... SeroVital will cost you about $100 a month."

Where can I get it?

Having a hard time finding SeroVital-hgh? It's currently available at all Ulta stores, Kohl's, and select GNC locations. Over the next few months it will be available on a limited basis at prestige retailers Can't wait? You can order it directly from SanMedica International by calling 1-800-917-8084 or visit their website at www.SeroVital.com. Use the promo code HGH305 at checkout and shipping is free!

ing themselves on "Two and a Half Men" - with the renowned Hollywood wild man teaching his mildmannered co-star all about L.A.'s hottest hookers!

That's just one of the amazing stories out of Jon's new memoir, "So That Happened," as the actor looks back at his mind-bending years on the hit CBS show!

"Charlie suggested a few online purveyors he occasionally used," wrote the 49-year-old "Pretty in Pink" star, describing Charlie's solution for Jon's emotional turmoil after divorcing actress Sarah Trigger.

"He and I had different tastes, so I didn't go with his exact recommendations," Jon added.

In the book Jon described in hilarious detail his encounters with escorts. "I went with an out-call for my first try, which means they come over to your house. My chosen vendor drove a white BMW and sported a sexy Finnish accent. It was really a very friendly experience, maybe because the act of having sex is guite the conversational icebreaker.

"The next time, I went to her place, which probably wasn't really her place. We sat down, tried to make small talk and halfheartedly stumbled into a conversation about recent fluctuations in the stock market," the book revealed.

"If Charlie's example of his evening's entertainment was best exemplified by a snapshot of lady parts," wrote Jon, "mine would be a picture of me hunched over a table of papers and telling a hot lady, 'The real estate boom is building, you need to diversify."

Life with Charlie, according to Jon Cryer

CHARLIE'S wife Denise Richards once made an unexpected visit to the set - and Charlie rushed up to his co-star while pleading for him to hide a mysterious bag. Jon was actually relieved to find the bag only contained pornographic magazines. "I was prepared for the weirdest, but it really was all pretty tame - some of it just topless mags."

CHARLIE had a habit of showing Jon pictures of women he dated - or at least their vaginas! "It was always a perfectly nice-looking vagina, but I would invariably think, 'Why just this, and not the rest of the person?"

JON broke up with a girlfriend after Charlie revealed he'd dated her first - and Jon asked about that breakup. "Charlie said, 'Well, I wanted to bring another girl into bed with us, and she was not happy about that.' And then he looked me straight in the eye and with no trace of irony, said, 'So heads-up on that.'"

ON THE more serious side, Jon knew Charlie's days on the show were numbered during its eighth year. His co-star was looking "gaunt, pale, sallow, [and] even sweaty occasionally" - and "started talking to himself."

Cosby conflict for loyal 'Friends'

ENNIFER Aniston and Courteney Cox won't be gossiping about the Bill Cosby rape scandal - because of their old network loyalty to the disgraced comedian.

"Jen and Courteney will always be grateful to Bill," said a pal. "Early in the run of 'Friends,' he gave his blessing for NBC to put the show into the Thursday 8 p.m. time slot - his old time slot."

Now friends say the "Friends" pair gets really awkward over their old pal!

"They're always withdrawing from conversations about Cosby," added the source. "It's really tearing them both up, though."

Baby Nori's an iPad genius, brags papa

GOMANIAC Kanye West is now convinced he's raising a child genius thanks to his tech-savvy daughter, North, and the savvy infant's constant use of apps.

"Nori." at 21 months. already has plenty to keep her busy on her personal iPhone and iPad, but her favorite is Birthday Party Playtime, said a source.

"She gets to have a birthday party whenever she wants, and it allows her to share birthday cake with her celebrity friends!" said the pal.

Other favorites include Shape Builder, Ani-Match. which teaches animal sounds, and an app for the PBS spelling show, "Super Why!"

"Kanve knows she's smart, and will be able to do what a 3-year-old can do at the age of 2." the source added.

Discovered: The Coin That Never Was! America's Lost Masterpiece The $100 Union®

Original sketches found at the Smithsonian

Imagine that you were examining artifacts in the Smithsonian Institution and you found a never-seen-before sketch for the largest and highest denomination American coin ever proposed.

That's precisely what happened when a coin expert was exploring the collection at this celebrated public institution not long ago.

To his own surprise, the numismatist found the original-design concept for a one hundred dollar denomination created by George T. Morgan, arguably the greatest American coin designer. These sketches, hidden within an original sketchbook for nearly a century, represent perhaps the grandest American coin ever proposed—the $100 Union®.

This is not a reproduction... this is the first-time ever Morgan $100 Union® design struck as a silver proof.

George T. Morgan will always be remembered for his most famous coin, the Morgan Silver Dollar. Until recently, the world knew nothing of Morgan's larger and higher denomination $100 Union® concept design. The secret's out!

GET GRADE A DAYTIME ZZZS!

NAPPING can boost creativity, reduce anxiety and even lower heart disease risk. Scientists believe the brain gets fatigued during the day, and a short nap helps rejuvenate it - with the most effective naps lasting only 10 to 20 minutes. That kind of light sleep won't make you groggy, but will keep you alert. Try a cup of coffee before hitting the sack. It should kick in and wake VERYBODY knows that drinking water is essential to good health, but how much is enough? Most experts go by the 8X8 rule - meaning that you should drink an 8-ounce glass at least 8 times a day. Now here's how to tell if you're coming up short! The obvious first sign of thirst is feeling thirsty, so listen to your body. If your skin is dry, it's a good sign of dehydration. Lotion is great, but it doesn't replace water. You're in good shape if your urine is clear or light yellow - but if it's darker, then you need a glass of water!

WHEN MAMMOGRAMS AREN'T ENOUGH

FORMER "Good Morning America" co-host Joan Lunden has dense breast tissue, so she didn't settle for a bill of good health from a recent mammogram. She followed up with an ultrasound that detected an aggressive form of breast cancer that the mammogram missed. "This type of tissue can obscure cancer on a mammogram, masking tumors and making them difficult to see," said Dr. Fischer.

RUN AWAY FROM KNEERED ACENERIS

HE most effective steps toward avoiding knee replacement surgery involve diet, exercise and nutrition. "Obesity puts tremendous strain on knee cartilage, while narrowing arteries and reducing blood flow," said Dr. Stuart Fischer. "For every additional pound you carry, you put about three pounds of extra pressure on your knees - and multiply the pressure on your hips by six!" The average replacement lasts 10 to 15 years, so you may need another when you're at higher risk of complications. "So take care of your knees with exercise and proper diet!" he said.

WHEN YOU THOUGHT THINGS COULDN'T GET WORSE

MEN already hate to hear about erectile dysfunction and now there are signs the condition can be a signal for possible heart disease! ED is caused by impaired circulation, but impaired circulation is never isolated to one part of the body. That means a man suffering from ED should assume that other arteries are affected especially his coronary arteries. "Diet, nutrition and exercise can all be helpful. especially in a comprehensive health plan," said Dr. Fischer. "I also recommend L-arginine, an amino acid that releases nitric oxide. which opens arteries."

SPIT OUT BACTERIA!!

FOOD particles frequently hide between vour teeth, which can result in bad breath and bigger problems. "Always remove seeds or tiny pieces of fiber between teeth," said Dr. Fischer. "Not doing so can lead to gum and periodontal disease." And bacterium love sugar, so brush carefully after consuming soda, sports drinks, fruit juice and candy. Always brush both sides of your teeth, and use floss and mouthwash to avoid gum disease and cavities. Chewing gum is also good for neutralizing bacteria.

HOW TO PLAY

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

NOTHER legendary film star is shelling out big bucks for a stint in rehab, but this time the patients are a couple of unemployed, alcoholic Russian – bears!

Former French sex kitten Brigitte Bardot is stepping up with her animal rights charity to take care of two caged bears whose livers were abused for the sake of entertainment at a restaurant in the city of Sochi.

Now they are to be treated for their serious addiction to beer.

The guzzling grizzlies have been removed from their owner, who used them to raise rubles by posing for photo ops with tourists. For over 20 years since they were cubs, overly exuberant diners passed beer onto the bears.

"Beer is good for the bears because of the Sochi climate," insisted restaurant owner Dheniks Uzaroshvili.

But when the bears were taken away, they really had nowhere to go. Not surprisingly, there were few takers for huge beasts with sharp claws and aching hangovers.

"The problem is that they are alcoholics, and it is even more difficult to wean bears off alcohol than it is with human beings," said Anna Kogan of Big Hearts Foundation, a British animal welfare group that's backed by the Brigitte Bardot Fund.

Brigitte Bardot

Now the bears are going cold turkey as they prepare to join the Lindsay Lohans of the animal kingdom in a very special sanctuary.

"There is a home for these bears in a rehabilitation center in Romania," said Anna, adding that Big Hearts will arrange and finance the move as soon as the Russian government provides the legal paperwork.

The sanctuary already cares for about 70 bears that have been mistreated or spent years in captivity.

And that's how these two critters clawed their way to the top of this week's Odd List!
